ACADEMIC AWARD

Between 1995 and 2002, I received a full scholarship for my advanced undergraduate studies (German Hauptstudium) and postgraduate education from the Evangelisches Studienwerk, a state-funded body of the German Protestant Church (EKD). This foundation belongs to the group of eight German Begabtenförderungswerke and provides financial support for exceptionally gifted students to assist their studies at German and international universities.

AREAS OF RESEARCH INTEREST

My research concerns three fields: (1) comparative politics, namely theories of economic and social development, political elites, political parties and interest groups; (2) I specialize in a number of public policy fields, such as social policy, development policy and labour market issues; (3) my theoretical interests relate to regional integration issues, international relations (IR) and geopolitical theory.

In terms of country expertise, I hold specialist knowledge on Austria, Federal Republic of Germany, Republic of Korea, Republic of Yemen, Switzerland, Syrian Arab Republic, United Kingdom, United States of America, and the European Union.

CURRENT RESEARCH

My current research concerns: (1) comparative politics; (2) German politics and society; (3) Middle East policy and global geopolitics; (4) EU and East Asia/South Korea.
